

Terms of use

Welcome to LichtRahmen-Terms of use of private groups and private pages for members

LichtRahmen offers a private area for registered/logged in members with information, content and communities on various topics such as music with pictures and videos and art/fantasy with pictures and videos. Members of LichtRahmen can post pictures, videos and lyrics in these private areas. Only posts and comments relating to these pages/topics are permitted. All other posts that are not related to the groups will be removed. The topics in this private area can be suggested and co-determined by the members.

In order to avoid posts that are spam, it is only possible to post photos/images/videos directly in the private areas. The members per group are limited to 50 people to keep the groups and the exchange safe.

Videos, pictures, texts and comments from members should not leave these private areas/not be shared outside this website. However, public images from this website may be shared (please link to us <https://www.lichtrahmen.de>). Comments are disabled for members on the public pages for privacy reasons.

Posts (images/ photos) can be uploaded directly to the private groups/ pages, a button is provided for this purpose. Youtube/ Instagram videos may only be used as an external link and therefore they can only be found on special pages here and can only be posted by admins, due to data protection security for the members (screenshot with reference to an external link).

The members have the possibility to post in the groups/on the pages and to send messages to each other. If you would like to become a member of these groups, simply send an email to the administrator with your first and last name, a username that is visible to the groups and an email. The email and the name will not be published, it is only used for registration. This website collects and uses as little information as possible from members/visitors to this site. Further information can be found in the privacy policy/ terms of use of this website.

Membership on this website/ in the groups is free of charge. The registration of new members is only done by the administrator, this is necessary for spam protection for the groups. Each member then logs in with their user name and password. Each member can reset/create a new password themselves.

If one of the above terms of use is invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining terms of use. The terms of use may change in the event of new developments and the legal situation. The changes will be sent to the members in writing.

German law applies exclusively to this site with the registered office of the website administrator (Bielefeld/Germany).

Should this site and/or its groups be closed, the members will also be deleted after prior notification.

The provisions of the Federal Data Protection Act will be complied with. Further data protection provisions of this site can be found in the privacy policy.

If you have any problems/complaints or questions, please write to the administrator/admin LichtRahmen (email: lichtrahmen@gmx.de) of this website. Have fun in the groups/ on the pages!
